*During a Trinity student’s first semester of their junior year, students write a literary analysis research paper. All students choose just ONE of any of the books below to read over the summer as the basis for literary research in the fall. (Any ISBN will do.)

Please take notes in your book, mark any significant passages and write a quick summary sentence or two after each chapter so that you can find quotes to support your thesis when you are writing it. There will be a limit to the number of students who can read each book because the literary analysis papers are used as the base for the Rhetoric II persuasive speeches. Please email salexander@trinityacademy.com to request a particular book; requests will be granted on a first-come, first-serve basis and if a book is "full" you will be asked to choose another work. All students must decide on the book they will read and email Mrs. Alexander by July 1st.
